

Greetings:

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the inappropriate use of the public airways.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The showing of this "documentary" is an obvious attempt to sway their viewers to their opinion and constitutes an advertisement and the use of their resources to elect the candidate of their choice.

In the public interest they should allocate an equal amount of time to the opposing point of view.

Thank you.
